

Check what you think is true.

A true friend...

is loyal.

tells you the <sup>verdade mesmo</sup> truth even if it hurts you.

<sup>pode evitar</sup> may lie to avoid hurting you.

is always there for you.

<sup>gasta / passa</sup> spends a lot of time with you.

never <sup>esquece</sup> forgets your birthday.

accepts you the <sup>jeito</sup> way you are.

<sup>perdoar</sup> always forgives you.

I could be a more caring friend.

I think both.
is not a choice to be there.

- Are you a good friend? What could you do to become a better friend?
- Do you make friends easily? How can we make new friends?
- How long have you and your best friend been friends?
- Why do friends sometimes drift apart?

drift apart = se afastam
